

University of London Union - June 17th-19th

Prospects for the World Revolution

Friday June 17th

1730 - 1830 - Registration

1830 - 2030 - The case for Marxism

For more information or to book your place
in advance email
contact@socialist.net
or phone 020 7515 7675

www.socialist.net

Saturday June 18th

1000- 1130

1. Marxism and Religion
2. The Arab Revolution

1145 - 1315

1. Marxism and Art
2. The revolutions in the ex-colonial countries after the Second World War

1315 - 1400 - Lunch

1400- 1530

1. Marxist Economics
2. Stalinism

1545 - 1800

1. Film: Capitalism - A love story
2. Film: The Battle of Algiers

Sunday June 19th

1030 - 1230

1. Marxism and Feminism
2. Bolshevism

1230 - 1300 - Lunch

1300- 1445

1. The Venezuelan Revolution
2. *The History of the Communist (3rd)
International*

1500-1600pm

Closing remarks - The World Revolution and the tasks of the Marxists

www.marxist.com

Come to the Marxist Summer School June 17-19 for a packed weekend of discussion and debate on what relevance the theory and programme of the Marxists has in this epoch of world revolution.

Speakers will include Alan Woods, author of Reformism Or Revolution: Marxism and Socialism of the 21st Century, Fred Weston, editor of In Defence of Marxism website, Jorge Martin, International Secretary of Hands Off Venezuela, Rob Sewell, editor of Socialist Appeal, Hamid Alizeh, editor of the Iranian Marxist paper Mobarezeye Tabagathi, Marie Frederiksen, editor of the Danish Marxist paper Socialistisk Standpunkt and John Pickard, former editor of British Marxist newspaper Militant.